

Sunday, October 23rd, 2016
First Sunday at 2853 Dunlop Lane

This week is a truncated version of the normal group tools. Due to the uniqueness of our gathering this weekend, we are encouraging groups to listen and watch this weeks message online at graceclarksville.com/watch.

In the Old Testament God is both calling his people to himself and to a special place. In the place where God has set aside for them they will be able to draw near to Him.

- As a group, read through the following Biblical texts from the message and talk through your own observations and understandings of the them.
 - Isaiah 49:15-16
 - Zechariah 8:3-8
 - Ephesians 2:12-23

We have designed our building to be both simple and beautiful, and yet we also know that there imperfect places to be discovered as we settle in.

- How do the ideas of simplicity, beauty, and imperfection correlate to God's love for us?

Our call as a church is to see this place through the eyes of a pilgrim, not a tourist. We return to this specific place, not to be observers but to be with those we meet with; asking that our hearts become immediately engaged towards each other.

- What are your hopes and expectations for our church in the Next Ten years to come?