

Use this guide to help your family learn about how God wants us to live with integrity.

First, watch this week's video!

Integrity:
choosing to be truthful in whatever you say and do.

Memory Verse

Anyone who lives
without blame walks safely. But anyone who takes a crooked path will get caught.
Proverbs 10:9, NIV

Bible Story

A Matter of Trust (Naaman and Elisha's Servant)
2 Kings 5

Bottom Line

When you're not truthful, you lose trust.

Activity

Tic-Tac-Tourney

WHAT YOU NEED:

Paper and writing utensil

WHAT YOU DO:

Pre-draw ten Tic-Tac-Toe boards on the sheet of paper. Challenge your kid to a Tic-Tac-Toe competition. Play ten games and whoever wins the most of those games will be declared the ultimate Tic-Tac-Toe champion!

Talk about the Bible Story

We all want to win when we play a game, right? When have you been tempted to cheat to win a game? (Allow for response and share your own example.)

Someone in our story today told a lie to get what he wanted. Who was it? (Gehazi)

Who showed integrity in the story? Give an example how they showed integrity. (Naaman—apologized when he was wrong; asked for forgiveness; offered thanks and gifts)

Who did not show integrity? (Gehazi)

Why does lying get us in trouble? (We lose trust with the people and break relationships. Lying hurts our reputations and how people will trust us in the future.)

Because God is trustworthy, He wants us to be trustworthy. He wants us to protect our relationships with each other by always choosing to be honest, no matter what the outcome might be.

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"God, we pray that our family would be one that's known for its integrity all the time. Help us to remember that when we're honest, we build trust and strengthen our relationships with each other. We pray that we are like Naaman—that when we're wrong, we're quick to apologize and ask for forgiveness. Thank You for loving us and forgiving us. We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen."

Integrity means choosing to be truthful in whatever you say and do.

WEEK
3
2ND-3RD

DAY 1

Read Ephesians 4:25

“Cheaters never win.”

“Honesty is the best policy.”

“Lying lips sink ships.”

Have you heard any of these sayings before?

Honesty is always the best policy because even if you do get in trouble for something you’ve done wrong, being honest about it means less trouble for sure. And lying lips, can tank or sink your relationship with others.

Here’s a little integrity challenge. The next time you’re tempted to do or say something untrue, think about the people around you. Remember that when you’re not truthful, you lose trust. Ask yourself if telling that lie or doing something dishonest in the moment will help or hurt your relationships. If it’s hurtful, it’s best to choose integrity instead. And remember, you can always ask God to help you make choices that honor Him and others!

Create your own integrity phrases like the ones above. Try to keep it to five words or less. Share your new integrity slogan with a family member or friend.

DAY 2

Read Luke 6:31

Today’s verse is often called the golden rule. Jesus taught us this rule so we would know how to treat each other. But this is especially true when it comes to integrity! Strong friendships are built on trust.

How would you change the scenarios below so that the person treats you the way you want to be treated? Your sister breaks something of yours. When you ask her what happened, she says she never touched it.

Your best friend passes out invitations to her birthday party at school. It’s the end of the day and you haven’t received one. When you ask her about it, she denies that she passed out invitations at all.

Your friend borrowed your favorite pencil sharpener without asking. When you say something to him, he lies and says he hasn’t seen it.

When it comes to living with integrity this week, make sure you apply the golden rule. Ask God to help you treat others the way you want to be treated so you build trust!

*When you’re not truthful,
you lose trust.*

DAY 3

Read Colossians 3:9

Biting your nails.
Brushing your teeth twice a day.
Chewing with your mouth open.
Cleaning up after you're finished.

Habits. We all have them. Some are good and some are just plain bad! Did you know that you can actually change your habits? The best way to break an old habit is to replace it with a new one.

When you become a follower of Jesus, you are a new creation. The old way of doing things, the old way of living should be left behind. So instead of falling into old habits that are dishonest, we should follow Jesus' example. With God's help, we can replace our old habits and choose to be truthful so that others can trust us.

Think back to this past week. Did you fall into the old habit of lying about something to avoid getting in trouble? Ask God to forgive you and to help you make a different choice next time. And if you've hurt someone with your lie, make sure you ask them for forgiveness too.

DAY 4

Read 1 John 3:18

What's the difference between saying "I love you" and showing someone you love them? Is it easier to say you love or to show you love?

One big way you can show someone how much you love them is by choosing to be truthful in all you say and do. Just like love is about more than words, integrity is more than just using honest words or telling the truth. It's about our honest actions too. While the words we say are super important (just like saying "I love you" is important), we need to back up those words by being honest in how we live and treat others.

Write a note to yourself by filling in the blanks below. Ask God to help you show love by choosing to be honest in all we say AND do this week.

Dear _____,
(Your name)

Don't just talk about love, show _____ love by (Friend/ family member)

(a specific example of integrity)

Then it will truly be love.

WEEKLY CUES

YOU GOT THIS!

Theme

Offstage: Drop the Act

Integrity is choosing to be truthful in whatever you say and do.

REMEMBER THIS

“Anyone who lives
without blame walks safely.
But anyone who takes a crooked path will get caught.”
Proverbs 10:9, NIV

Week Three

Naaman and Elisha's Servant
2 Kings 5

Say This

When you're not truthful, you lose trust.

Do This

Bed Time

When you don't tell the truth, people find out. And when they find out, they might stop trusting you. Your teachers might not give you as many privileges. Your friends may not want to hang out with you. Bottom line: it's always better to be truthful. Pray for each other, that God will give you the courage to be truthful with the people in your life.

When something comes between you and your child
relationally, fun
can be the bridge
that rebuilds trust.
